

Country Music Star Coming to Our Neck of the Woods.

By: Grace. C. Gorton

Luke Bryan's 10th annual Farm tour came for the first time in Ohio. Luke Bryan performed at the Ayars Farm in Irwin, Ohio. It is near Springfield and Urban. The concert started 6pm on Thursday, September 27th, 2018. Parking began at 2pm and doors opened at 5pm. Luke Bryan was accompanied by Chase Rice, The Peach Pickers, Jon Langston, and DJ Rock. Tickets were $51 in advance, and $60 at the gate.

Luke Bryan is a two-time academy award winner of country music, and Country Music association Entertainer. Luke Bryan was named CMT artist of the Year for 6 consecutive years. He is also a five-year host of the ACM Awards. Some of his many hits are: "Country Girl," "Do I," "Most People are Good," "Drink Beer," "Drunk on You," "Strip it Down," and "Huntin, Fishin, & Lovin."

The concert consisted of food, fun, friends, and family. The top country star sang until almost 11:30 pm. Luke Bryan sang many songs while almost 20,000 fans were bundled up in blankets. Everyone had a great time at the concert. It was a very enjoyable time with family and friends. Many people favored one of his top hits, known as "Sunrise, Sunburn, and Sunset." The concert was very energetic and vivid. It was a great time for bonding.

In the parking lot there was definitely a lot of fun you can play cards, sports, or board games. It was a very enjoyable first concert for many people. Luke Bryan came out at about 9:00 in his regular jeans and his boots. Some of the concerns for many people were bathroom waits, parking issues, and food prices, which is usually for a twenty thousand person concert in the middle of a farm. Luke Bryan had a special fan meet and greet beforehand. The concert had many special fans. Anna Lynch is a Luke Bryan fan and said her favorite song was: "Sunrise, Sunburn, Sunset". Becky Lynch is also a Luke Bryan fan and said her favorite song was: "Light It Up". Blake Gorton is another Luke Bryan fan and said his favorite song was, "Sunrise, Sunburn, Sunset." "It was an amazing time," said Becky Lynch.